

On their official website, Girl Scouts USA promotes the Dolores Huerta Patch for grades K-12. Screenshot below is the www.girlscouts.org webpage appeared on 3/7/12. You can link to the page online at this link: http://girlscouts.org/news/whats_new/hispanic_heritage_month.asp (Scroll down on the live link to see the The Patch info)

girlscouts.org/news/whats_new/hispanic_heritage_month.asp

TWO THOUSAND TWELVE IS THE YEAR OF THE GIRL Learn more

featuring Hispanic, Native American, African American, Pacific Islander, and Middle Eastern heritages. The cultural series begins September 16 with a Hispanic heritage celebration. Music, food, arts, dancing, and various presenters will share the beauty and diversity that make up Hispanic culture in Southern Nevada, which is represented by 17 percent of the council's membership.

"Many cultures blend to create the fabric of the United States. These interactive celebrations allow our girls to become more knowledgeable and better relate to the world around them," said Kelle Boteilho, chief operating officer, Girl Scouts of Southern Nevada.

Pride in Patch Form

Dolores Huerta Girl Scout Patch

In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, encourage your girls to earn the Dolores Huerta Girl Scout Patch! The patch, which honors Latina civil rights leader and Girl Scout Dolores Huerta, was developed by Girl Scouts Heart of Central California in partnership with the Dolores Huerta Foundation. Any Girl Scout in grades K-12 is eligible to earn the patch, and all relevant materials are available online in both English and Spanish.

